But behind the glitz and glamour, The Seven hide a dark secret. They are responsible for the deaths of countless actors and actresses who have crossed their path. And now, they have set their sights on their latest victim: a struggling young actor named Jake.

Jake is a talented and ambitious actor, but he has made the mistake of offending one of The Seven's most powerful members. As a result, he has been blacklisted from the industry and is now living in poverty.

But Jake is not one to give up. He knows that The Seven are responsible for his downfall, and he is determined to get revenge. He begins to investigate the organization, and he soon discovers that they are even more powerful and dangerous than he had imagined.

As Jake gets closer to the truth, he realizes that he is not alone. There are others who have been wronged by The Seven, and they are willing to help him bring them down.

Together, Jake and his allies form a powerful alliance, and they begin to fight back against The Seven. They expose their secrets, they sabotage their plans, and they eventually bring them to justice.
