A Tale of Love and Intrigue at the Heart of Washington

At the heart of the story lies a captivating love affair between two individuals from vastly different worlds. Eliza, a young journalist, finds herself drawn to the enigmatic charm of David, a gifted historian. As they navigate the complexities of their feelings amidst the political currents of Washington, their connection deepens with each stolen glance and secret encounter.

Unveiling the Secrets of Washington's History

Bradley's vivid prose transports readers to the bustling halls of the White House, the grandeur of the Smithsonian, and the serene beauty of the National Mall. Through the eyes of her characters, you'll witness pivotal moments in history, from the signing of the Declaration of Independence to the rise and fall of empires.

But alongside the grandeur, Bradley delves into the lesser-known stories of Washington's past. She weaves together threads of mystery and intrigue, inviting readers to uncover forgotten secrets hidden within the nation's most iconic monuments.

A Journey of Self-Discovery and Belonging

Beyond the love story and historical intrigue, "My Washington D.C." is also a profound exploration of self-discovery and belonging. Through her characters, Bradley probes the complexities of identity, family, and the relentless pursuit of purpose.
