"A Call for Peace" by Promising Poet

In a world torn by strife and despair, Where shadows dance and echoes of war tear, I raise my voice, a beacon in the night, A humble plea for peace, a guiding light.

Let us lay down our swords and embrace, The warmth of unity, a healing embrace, Let empathy guide our every thought, And compassion be the thread that binds us all.

Let us build bridges across divides so wide, Where understanding flows like a gentle tide, Let love conquer hate, let it prevail, And peace forever in our hearts shall sail.
