

Running Copenhagen, Running The Eu

A Journey Through Europe by Foot

In the summer of 2019, I embarked on a journey that would change my life forever. I ran from Copenhagen, Denmark to Istanbul, Turkey, a distance of over 10,000 kilometers. It was a journey that took me through 15 countries, over mountains and valleys, and through cities and villages. It was a journey that tested my limits, both physically and mentally, but it was also a journey that taught me so much about myself and the world around me.

I had always been a runner, but I had never attempted anything like this before. I had never run more than a marathon, and I had never run for more than a few days in a row. But I was determined to do this, and I was confident that I could.

I started my journey in Copenhagen, a beautiful city with a rich history. From there, I ran through Sweden, Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Slovakia, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Serbia, North Macedonia, Greece, and Turkey. I ran through forests and fields, up mountains and down valleys, and through cities and villages. I met so many interesting people along the way, and I learned so much about the different cultures of Europe.

The journey was not without its challenges. There were times when I was tired, sore, and discouraged. There were times when I wanted to give up. But I kept going, one step at a time. I knew that if I could just keep putting one foot in front of the other, I would eventually reach my goal.

Finally, after 100 days of running, I reached Istanbul. I was exhausted, but I was also exhilarated. I had done it. I had run across Europe. It was an incredible feeling, and it was a moment that I will never forget.

Running Copenhagen, Running The Eu is a story about adventure, self-discovery, and the power of the human spirit. It is a story that will inspire you to dream big and to never give up on your goals.
