Emily Carter, a young woman grappling with the loss of her beloved grandmother, finds solace in the magnificent Thoroughbred, Storm. Through their unbreakable bond, Emily discovers a newfound purpose and learns the importance of perseverance.

Annabelle Price, a once-promising equestrian, must confront her fears and rekindle her love for riding after a life-altering accident. With the help of a gentle mustang named Spirit, Annabelle embarks on a transformative journey of healing and self-discovery.

And then there's Sarah Johnson, a veterinarian with a heavy heart, who finds solace in caring for a retired show horse named Forever. Through their unwavering connection, Sarah learns the profound power of compassion and forgiveness.

A World of Horses and Heart

"The Forever Horse" is not just a story about horses; it's a celebration of their majestic presence in our lives. Gregg paints a vivid and immersive world where horses are more than mere animals – they are companions, healers, and symbols of hope.

Emily's journey with Storm explores the transformative power of animals, their ability to mend broken hearts and inspire us to overcome obstacles. Annabelle's relationship with Spirit is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit and the power of facing our fears.

And through Sarah's bond with Forever, Gregg delves into the profound themes of compassion, forgiveness, and the importance of finding meaning in life.
